

I am perfectly happy with the Indiana no call list. If you have to enact a list it should be for states that don't already have their own lists. Seem just another way for the federal government to ride over state law for no good reason. It isn't broke here so don't fix it.